

The Owingsville Outlook.

VOL. XX.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, AUGUST 25, 1898.

NO. 5.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The taxpayers of Bath county are hereby notified that the tax for the year 1898 have been made out and placed in my hands. You are therefore notified to call at my office and settle.

J. M. ARCHISON, S. R. C.

See Olympia items for notice of John O. Miller's death.

Tobacco sticks for sale at Brother & Goodpastor's.

Born, Monday night, to Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Reynolds, near town, a son.

Hon. Samuel J. Pugh will speak at the G. A. R. reunion at Salt Lick Aug. 26th.

The colored folks will have a big picnic at Preston next Saturday, Aug. 27th.

This is positively Dickinson's last week here with his tent. Sit for some fine photos.

The weather took a decided turn for the warmer Monday night and has been roasting hot since.

Well, Dickinson is advertised to be at Fleming Sept. 1st. He will leave here Monday sure.

Thirty to forty of the town's colored people went on the excursion to Cincinnati Sunday.

Lost.—Fifteen dollars Aug. 15th. Will pay liberal reward for return of same to Owingsville Banking Co. L. M. RITCHER.

Elder W. Long, District Evangelist, will preach at Licking Friday night, Aug. 26th.

Are you going to let Well, Dickinson leave here without having a sitting for some of those beautiful Platinum photos?

The fifth annual fair will be held at Fleming, Fleming county, Sept. 7-10. The company's courtesy is acknowledged.

To CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. feb20

After a cessation of some days, the rain resumed business at the old stand from Thursday afternoon until Friday morning.

Remember the Administrator's sale of the stock, farming implements, etc., of the late Joseph Sulad at the residence Sept. 2d. At

The impromptu hop at the Owings House Monday night was fairly well attended and was an enjoyable affair.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—In order to close up my old business, I desire all who are indebted to me to call and settle at once. R. T. GAULT.

Rev. E. O. Guernant, of Wilmore on Aug. 18th gave his annual "Old Folks' Dinner." No guest present was under 70 years of age.

All who have claims against the estate of J. W. Cook, deceased, will please file same by Sept. 1st, 1898. R. T. GAULT, Adm'r.

Rev. C. A. Bromley will preach his farewell sermon Thursday night, Aug. 25th. Conference will meet at Flemingsburg Sept. 14th.

PAID STAYS.—An agent of Kahn Bros., merchant tailors of Louisville, will be here Saturday, Aug. 27th, with a nice lot of samples, and will take your orders.

A. S. THOMAS.

J. B. Goodpastor bought in Mt. Sterling four aged mules in good flesh for $250. That seems very cheap for that class of stock.

CORN MILL.—I have bought Clark Croucher's corn mill in town. Regular grinding days are Friday and Saturday. Meal exchanged for corn at any time my customers bring it.

S. P. ARCHISON.

The annual meeting of Christian Church of Bath and Menifee counties will be held at upper Salt Lick church, beginning Friday night, Aug. 26th.

SEED WHEAT.—I have for sale 80 bushels of the celebrated Red Chaff Wheat, which I introduced here some years ago. Sample can be seen at THE OUTLOOK office.

C. W. HONAKER.

Among the signs of autumn is the return from the north of the cedar-birds, which usually pass through from the south during cherry time.

PREPARED TO BREAK HORSES.—Having a 3-mile track we are prepared to break horses to ride or drive. Prices very reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed.

F. M. BRAGLE & BRO., Olympia, Ky. A Mt. Sterling special says Ratliff & Burbridge's livery stable burned last Friday night, also two business and three dwelling houses. Loss about $12,500, insurance $6,000.

All executors, administrators and guardians who have not settled with the court for two years must call at once and make settlements under penalty of law.

WM. G. RAMSEY, Judge.

The street fair, or a sort of rural Midway Plaisance, is becoming popular in country towns. Paris, Ky., conducted one to a successful conclusion last week. The street fair promises in time to supplant the old-fashioned stock fair.

We are manufacturing Brick and Draining Tile. You can get any quality you desire. Your trade is solicited.

GEORGE CHEAT & SON, Salt Lick, Ky.

Obituary of John J. Swetnam in Odessa items. Mr. Swetnam was one of the patriarchs of the county and was held in the highest esteem. The Outlook joins in expressing sympathy to the bereaved family.

Hon. A. L. Peterman, so well and favorably known here, will deliver his celebrated lecture "Spanish Pride vs. Yankee Pluck" at the Court House, Thursday night, Aug. 26th. Admission, 25 cents.

Tobacco Sales.—J. M. Richter bought on Flat Creek the new tobacco crop of J. A. Wright and James Clark, to be delivered as soon as stripped, at 7c; on Washington Branch, Chas. T. Stone's at 7c.

Dr. R. M. JONES FATALITY HURT. Paducah, Ky., Aug. 16.—(Special to Courier-Journal.) Dr. R. M. Jones, of Calvert City, Mo., was fatally injured in a runaway this afternoon. He was picked up bleeding and unconscious near his home.

This is Rane Jones, formerly of this county. Up to the hour of our going to press nothing had been learned by relatives here.

The 8-day-old infant of Mrs. Dora Cook died Wednesday night of last week and was interred Thursday afternoon by the grave of his father, J. W. Cook, in Owingsville Cemetery. The bereaved mother has the sympathy of all in her loss.

MEETING.—Rev. Thomas Rhoden sent a postal note late for last week's issue, announcing that he would bring the columns of the Outlook to the night of the third Sunday, to close the following Sunday; also, will preach at Okla the fourth Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m.

CARD OF THANKS.—The family of the late John J. Swetnam, of White Oak, desire through the columns of THE OUTLOOK to thank their many friends for the kind attentions shown the deceased in his last illness. Their tender ministrations will ever be held in most grateful appreciation. THE FAMILY.

T. S. Shout will not be understood: Hardware Reddick's, $1.00; Hardware Sells, $2.50; Hat Case, Pentecostal Chairs, 55c; Ladies' Oak Sewing Rockers, $1; Bed-springs, $2; Cotton-top Mattresses, $2.50; Dining Tables 60c per foot; Solid Oak Dressers, $7.50. Everything else in proportion. Cash or credit. 5 per cent off for cash.

RENEWAL.—Deputy Sheriff W. C. Tipton was driving down the Shroton hill pike last Thursday. Below J. M. Richter's tobacco warehouse some part of the harness gave way. The buggy running up on the horse caused it to kick and plunge. "Will jumped out and bruised himself somewhat. The horse ran and was stopped in front of Elder Zimmerman's residence. The buggy was wrecked.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Bath Co. Teachers' Institute convened Monday, to continue until Friday. Prof. T. C. Cherry, of Bowling Green, is conducting it. His wife is assisting him. Fifty-three of the 55 teachers engaged in the county are attending. Miss Lou Ramey and Omar Barber are ill and can't be present. There are a few schools that haven't yet employed a teacher. The Institute promises to be very successful. An open session was held Tuesday night. Prof. Peterman lectures Thursday night.

"COL." BASCOM.—Hon. Alpheus W. Bascom has for many years rather resisted having a military title thrust upon him by popular election, it being his proud boast that he was only a high private in the Confederate army, but, according to some of our exchanges, Gov. Bradley has made him an official Colonel by appointing him to that position on his staff to serve at the dedication of the Kentucky monument to the soldiers at Chickamauga.

FAIR.—Hazel Green, Ky., Aug. 15, '98.—At a meeting of the Hazel Green Fair Association, held on last Saturday, Aug. 13, it was agreed to hold a Fair in Hazel Green, beginning October 11, continuing four days. The following officers were elected: J. T. Day, President; William Clayton, Vice President; W. H. Pieratt, Secretary and Treasurer; Directors, A. Porter Lacy, Geo. W. Carson, Geo. W. Wheeler, C. C. Hanks, Eliza James, B. F. Piersall, Wm. May.

J. TAYLOR DAY, President. W. H. PIERATT, Secretary.

FISCAL COURT.—The Bath Fiscal Court met here Tuesday and transacted business as follows:—

It was ordered that Judge Ramsey pay out the $5,000 he has on hands on the Owingsville, Olympia & Menifee turnpike, which was recently built by the county.

It was ordered that there be submitted to the voters of the county at the regular November election the question whether the Court shall issue bonds to the amount of $28,000, with the proceeds of which to pay for turnpikes and other county indebtedness.

The County Judge is authorized to use any money that he may have on hands to have work done on the turnpikes.

COUNTY BOARD.—The State Election Board chose John T. Kimbrough, of this town; George W. Clayton, of Salt Lick, and Col. S. Rogers, of Sharpshurg, all Democrats, to constitute the Bath County Election Board. About ten counties have only Democratic members. In the balance the third member is either a Republican or a Populist.

OBITUARY.—Fredonia, N. Y., Aug. 19th, 1898.—Mrs. M. O. Oulton, under 60, of Fredonia, N. Y., wish to inform the people of Bath Co., Ky., that Drs. Phillips & Reeves, of Wyoming, are the only dentists in that county who are authorized to use Oulton's, as they have the exclusive control there and we furnish it only to them. We find dentists often claim to have Oulton's when they are using some other preparation as they know Oulton's is well and favorably known. Resp., OULTON'S MED. CO.

MARRIED.—Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the home of Harvey Moran in Flemingsburg, in the presence of a few friends, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Maggie, the adopted daughter of the late John L. Thompson, and Mr. Chas. Gates, a bachelor young farmer of Bath county. Rev. W. S. Willis, of the Christian church, officiated. They left on the 1:30 train for Lexington and other points, and will return the first of the week and go to housekeeping at the home of the groom near Bethel. May success and prosperity ever attend them.—Ewing Inquirer.

CUTTING AFFRAY.—Last Thursday afternoon Glenn Perry, Lee D. Broder, Reid Patterson, on the street, and Dr. A. B. Boyd, at his office window upstairs over J. M. Richter's store, were joking each other. Reid took offense at some remark of Boyd's. Reid went upstairs and had a quarrel with the Doctor in Alex. Conner's office. Being requested to cease the controversy there Dr. Boyd went to his own office. As Reid came out and went by Doctor's office something was said, whereupon Reid struck Doctor over the head with an umbrella and then commenced striking with his fist. Doctor had in his hand a small pocket knife, cleaning his nails. He instantly commenced cutting, inflicting on Reid a wound in the groin, one below the right nipple, one in the shoulder and one just grazing the face. Marshal Denton arrested Boyd, who was tried and acquitted in Magistrate John A. Clark's Court Friday morning. Reid was taken to Mrs. Belle Allen's. He is not dangerously hurt and will be out in a few days.

THOSE CISTERS.—If THE OUTLOOK is unreasonable in advertising occasionally to the building of those cisters over town for storing water for fire-fighting purposes, it will cease the agitation. But if the town is able to build them surely it is no fault to keep the subject before the people, for every time a big fire occurs the lack of water to stay its ravages is manifest to all, and all the citizens are convinced that there should be no delay in providing against such a lack in the future. However, as the memory of the losses incurred and the dangers narrowly averted becomes dimmed by time the people become indifferent on the subject.

It looks like that with the $250 per year license charged for the saloons, raising $1,250, and the full legal limit of taxes on property there should be revenue enough to carry on the work until a series of cisters at the proper distances apart have been built all over town. Again, there are the prisoners sentenced to labor who could be utilized in the work. Brick can be bought now at Salt Lick at little more than half what they cost formerly to buy and ship them here from Maysville, Ashland and other points.

Don't wait until another big fire burns in the lesson of being prepared for fire-fighting as well as the town can afford to be.

PERSONAL.

Miss Lou Ramey continues to improve slowly.

R. S. Estill has fever, and Mrs. Estill is ill also.

S. E. Frattman went to Lexington Monday on business.

Paul Gault is out again, after a spell of typhoid fever.

Jo B. Latham, of Prickly Ash, has typhoid fever mildly.

L. R. Slosser was out Monday from his spell of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Johnson have moved to Olympia to reside.

J. M. Hoffman and W. J. Collier, of Mt. Sterling, were here Sunday.

Ben Jones, of Prickly Ash, is improving from his attack of fever.

Mrs. James A. Anderson went last week on a visit to friends at Hillsboro.

Faris McChord, of Madison Co., arrived last Thursday on a visit to M. D. Faris.

John E. Fleming, of Upper Prickly Ash, is not so well in the past few days.

R. B. Broder and George Dawson have returned from a trip to Atlantic City, N. J., and New York City.

P. Maguire, of the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, was here Saturday.

Eugene Broder and J. Turner Perry made a business trip to Cincinnati Tuesday.

Ernest Gorham, of Millersburg, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Jacob Warner, near town.

Alf Donaldson, of Upper Prickly Ash, has gone to make his home in Oklahoma Territory.

Miss Mollie Markland, of White Oak, is spending the week with Miss Mary Reynolds.

John Markland, of Prickly Ash, is visiting relatives in Clark and Bourbon counties this week.

Miss Annie Smoot, of Sherrburne, visited Mrs. Jno. A. Daugherty last week, returning home Saturday.

A postal card from Miss Myrtle Donaldson states that she arrived safely at home, near Frisco, O. T.

Jas. W. Markland and son Duke, of Carlisle, came up Saturday to visit relatives, returning Sunday.

Miss Lizzie McClintock, of Millersburg, arrived Monday. She will be assistant teacher at Bath Seminary.

Mrs. W. S. Reeves, of Mt. Sterling, visited her brother Alfred Carter, near town, Friday and Saturday.

G. C. Ewing, O. B. Broder and Ray Patterson attended a hop at Flemingsburg Wednesday night of last week.

Eugene Broder will resign his position at the Farmington Bank September 1st, to be succeeded by Clyde Byron.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Willis and little daughter, Miss Ora, of Salt Lick, were social callers at this office Thursday.

Miss Maud Spears, a charming young lady of Lexington, came last week on a visit to her friend Mrs. Lee D. Broder.

R. S. Cross was in Cincinnati the latter part of last week buying goods for the new grocery of Thompson & Cross.

Mrs. Chess Glover and daughter, Miss Fannie, of Montgomery Co., spent Tuesday and Wednesday with relatives here.

Omond E. Byron returned Monday from a visit to relatives at Paris. Mrs. Byron remained with her father, who is very sick.

Miss Victoria Durham, after a pleasant visit to friends in this and Montgomery county, returned to her home in Louisville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mead came last Thursday afternoon on a visit to Mrs. Nancy Crouch, on Coyle street. They went to Mt. Sterling Monday.

Mrs. T. J. Young and daughter, Miss Alice, who had been guests of Mrs. J. B. Goodpastor for some weeks, returned home to Louisville Tuesday.

Hugh M. Wade and Misses Edith Thomas and Anna Lou Wade, of Montgomery county, were guests of Robert Coyle and wife Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Kate McAllister, of Bethel, after a visit of some weeks at the Olympian Springs, visited Mrs. C. W. Goodpastor and C. G. McAllister the past week.

J. W. Carter, son of ex-County Judge O. P. Carter, of Morgan county, who had been visiting his uncle, Jas. Carter, of Salt Lick, was a social caller at this office Monday.

Misses Mary Hunter Johnson, Fannie Tipton and Mattie Tabb, of Mt. Sterling, and Annie Vanarsdale, of Bethel, came last Thursday to visit Misses Emily Broder and Lorena Perry.

Dr. Thomas Patterson, of Lexington, was called here Thursday night by telegram to attend his nephew Reid Patterson, who was wounded. He returned home Friday morning.

G. H. Hiele, of Clark county, accompanied by his wife, has been stopping here for several days inspecting the growing crop of tobacco in the interest of the American Tobacco Co.

Mrs. Oakley, widow of the John Oakley noted as the teamster with the pair of dun horses, who formerly lived in the neighborhood of this town, was in town Saturday. She resides in Illinois.

Mrs. Andrew K. Coyle, of Prickly Ash, is suffering much pain and her foot is badly swollen from a wound made by a rusty nail. Her daughter Elva is convalescent from a spell of typhoid fever.

Prof. O. M. Robertson, of Flemingsburg, visited Dr. W. Doggett, of the county, a few days the past week. Prof. Robertson will teach the Bethel school the coming term, and is attending the Institute.

Thomas Leary, who taught a class in bookkeeping here 28 years ago, came in last week to get another class here. The reporter has known him for 39 years. He is a fine teacher and a nice old gentleman.

Mrs. T. S. Simrall (nee Dollie Ewing) and children, who had been guests of Mrs. S. S. father, T. W. Ewing, for some time, left Saturday to join her husband, Rev. Simrall, and return to their home in Missouri.

Wm. R. Howard, representing the Rice & Turner tobacco warehouse of Louisville, was here Monday. He will make his headquarters somewhere in Bath, Fleming or Nicholas counties this fall working for his house.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gillon went Thursday to Cincinnati to consult a specialist in regard to Mrs. Gillon's ailment. A dispatch from them to relatives stated that an operation was decided upon and would be made Tuesday of this week.

Robert Foley and wife, of color, returned from their Atlantic City trip. Bob is delighted. He saw his aunt in Washington, and through one of his cousins, who works around the White House, got to shake hands with President McKinley.

Prof. J. C. Keith was here last week in the interest of the Kentucky University and Hamilton College, at Lexington. He occupies the chair in the college vacated by Prof. Graham, resigned. He is a gentleman of distinguished bearing and fine conversational powers.

Humor of Grim War. (Baltimore Sun.) Grim-visaged war has its humor as well as its terrible side, and Captain General Blanco is not the only humorist in the present conflict. The cablegram to Madrid from the redoubtable commander about the mule that was killed at Matanzas set two continents laughing and thousands of rhymers to writing verses. And it is a dull day when he does not in a dispatch to the Spanish Government destroy several American men-of-war.

But as a humorist, the Captain at Manila who requested a cessation of hostilities while he went ashore for more ammunition is entitled to the cake. The Petrel, of Dewey's fleet, chased a gunboat up the Pasig River. Seeing he was cornered, the Captain of the Spanish gunboat went to the Petrel in a small boat under a flag of truce to make terms. The American Captain told him he must surrender or fight. "We are willing to fight," replied the Spaniard. "Please allow us to send for ammunition, because our store is exhausted."

There was decidedly no humor, however, in the misuse of the flag of truce by the Spanish Captain Sasta, at the Cavite Arsenal. He hoisted a white flag when he was seen, and when the Americans came to take possession, they found the Spaniards still under arms.

The withdrawal of the troops, with their arms, pending negotiations for a truce, was an instance of treachery and bad faith.

The coolness with which Commodore Dewey interrupted the battle for breakfast is decidedly humorous. The crews of the warships began shut up below decks, with hot boilers within and a tropical sun without, and the intense heat would possibly have done more damage than the Spanish guns. So breakfast time came most opportunely. But it is not likely that a great battle was ever deliberately interrupted before by the sound of the breakfast bell.

An incident took place in the battle of Manila Bay, when a breakfast was kept waiting for the close of hostilities. Rear Admiral James E. Jouett, of Montgomery county, Md., then Lieutenant Commander, was in command of a vessel. A Lieutenant named Murphy, who had resigned from the United States Navy, had command of one of the small Confederate boats in the bay. Jouett and Murphy had been warm friends before the war at the Naval Academy, so Jouett served a delicious breakfast prepared, and then set himself to capture Murphy's boat. This he succeeded in doing after some delay, and Murphy came aboard with his arm in a sling to surrender his sword in a most formal manner. Instead of taking the sword, Jouett reproached Murphy for keeping breakfast waiting. Upon seeing the feast, Murphy, who was very hungry, said: "Jouett, if you and only sent me word about this breakfast I would have surrendered an hour ago."

The Irish Nature. (Philadelphia Press.) A curious peculiarity of the Irish nature is the wide limits to which relationship is extended. "Do you know Pat Meehan?" a peasant was asked. "Why, he's a near relation of mine. He wance proposed for my sister Kate." When factious fighting was rife in Ireland it was a man's interest to "increase his following" by extending the number of his relations by every possible device. Happily, faction fighting is dead in Ireland, and a man has no need now to have behind him a long line of "ancestors" as Sir Boyle Roche would say, but of "relations," as was imperatively necessary when the "bhoys" were accustomed to "hold discussions with sticks" at every fair. It is after his relations that his relations "come in handy" to the Irishman. They give him a "grand burr." "Well, Mary," said a friend of mine, to a domestic who had been attending a "buryin'" had Pat Maheoney a good funeral? "Oh, he had a grate wane, sir," said Mary. "An' why wouldn't he? Wasn't he related to the whole barony? Faith, it reminded me of a land league meeting." A child went crying to its mother and reported that it had swallowed a button. "Well, well, look at that now," cried the woman. "Begar, I suppose the next thing you'll do is to swallow a buttonhole!" This story reminds me of a beggarman of his tattered coat.

It often seems in Ireland as if words are not quick enough, or if they form too cumbersome a vehicle for the rapid and rushing thoughts of these active-minded peasantry. A laughable instance of this occurred during a recent visitation of Dr. Walsh, the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Dublin, to a remote parish in his archdiocese, the story of which I was told by a priest. An old woman hobbled up to his Grace, as he was passing through the village, and exclaimed: "Wish, now that I've seen your lordship, ye may die, and the Lord be praised!" It was, needless to say, her own death the old lady desired, after the great privilege of having seen a live Archbishop. The same clergyman told me that he had a parishioner who is much addicted to drink. Meeting the man one day when, as the people say, "he had a drop in," the priest insisted that he should take the pledge, for it was the only protection against the temptations of the public house. "You've never seen a teetotaler drunk, Tom," said the priest. "Ah, your reverence," replied Tom, "I've seen many a man drunk, but I couldn't tell for the life of me whether they wor teetotalers or not!"

An Irishman got out of a train at a railway station for refreshments, but, unfortunately, the bell rang and the train went off before he had finished his drink. Running along the platform he shouted: "Hould on there; hould on. You've got a passenger aboard that's left behind!" A poor woman who had a son of whom she was very proud, unintentionally paid him a very bad compliment. Speaking of the boy to the priest, she said: "There isn't in the barony, your reverence, a cleverer lad nor Tom. Look at him, yer reverence," pointing to two small chairs in the cabin; "he made them out of his own head, and, faith, he has enough of his wood left to make me a big arm-chair!"

Scraps. SIGNIFICANT.—He (ardently)—All the world loves a lover, dearest. She—You haven't met papa yet, have you?—Puck.

TIME'S MUTATION.—How things change! Once a stamp tax caused a war; now a war causes a stamp tax.—Topska Journal.

VICTORY MONOTONOUS.—Oh, say, can't we run into a little penny defeat somewhere just to relieve the monotony?—Philadelphia Record.

HOW HE SPOKE.—Maudie—Don't you think the Count is quite a polished gentleman? Ethel—Well, he's capable of polish. He has brass enough.—Up-to-Date.

A MISAPREHENSION.—"Did you say the man was shot in the woods, doctor?" "No, I didn't. I said he was shot in the lumbar regions."—Yonkers Statesman.

ONLY BRAVE WOULD APPLY.—"The man I marry," remarked the blonde widow, "must be a hero." "He will be," remarked the Savage Bachelor.—Cin. Enquirer.

THE RAPID PROMOTION ROUTE.—"Bliffkin's boy has been made a Major." "I didn't know that he ever saw any service." "He didn't; he saw the President."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

NEARLY CESSID.—"You look puzzled." "I am puzzled about what she said to me." "What did she say?" "I told her we was well, and she told me I ought to go to war."—Judge.

IN THE SANCTUM.—Theatrical Manager.—The writer of the dramatic criticisms in your paper does not know what a good play is. Editor.—No. His memory is not good, and it has been so long since you had a good play.—Up-to-Date.

AFTER LONG YEARS.—"Do you remember," said Miss Ancient Oldie, to Colonel Crabtree, "how when you were a young man you proposed to me and I rejected you?" "It is one of the happiest recollections of my life," said the Colonel with an air of gallantry. And Miss Oldie is still wondering.—Puck.

CHEAPER HEROISM.—HOBBS—Wouldn't you like to be Hobson or Dewey? JOAN—What for? HOBS—Why, just think of getting your picture in every paper in the land.

JOAN—Huh! I can take one of the patent medicines and do that.—Exchange.

DOUBTFUL DESTINATION.—"Well, Pat, how is the old lady this morning? I hope her temperature is not as high as it was last night." "O'm not sure about that, sor. She is dead."—Up-to-Date.

SOCIAL PRESTIGE.—"What is a parvenu?" "That's what the man who got rich ten years ago calls the man who got rich yesterday."—Chicago Record.

EUGENE MINIHAN,

The only manufacturer of HOME-MADE Saddles and Harness in Owingsville, Ky. We lead. The others try to imitate by telling you theirs is "just as good." You remember that Leather Tree Saddle that was made by "Our Special Pattern" and told you they were "just as good" as ours.

KENTUCKY SPRING SADDLE,

Which is used more, rides easier and lasts longer than any saddle made. My Hand-made Harness is the safest Harness for you to buy; I will save you money on Machine-made Saddles and Harness. My prices are the lowest. Come and see the difference between home-made work and the trash others sell for Hand-made.

S. P. ATCHISON,

Dealer in Drugs, Groceries, Fruits, Fine Candies, Stationery and Perfumes. Also agents for OLD BARTON WHISKIES and Fine Wines.

CALL AT CORNER DRUG STORE AND GET PRICES.

HESS & PAXTON,

UNDERTAKERS & EMBALMERS. Funeral Furnishing. Careful and considerate service. Modern equipments. Hearse always furnished free. Prices reasonable. Try us.

MASONIC BLDG., OWINGSVILLE, KY.

BRING THE CASH TO GAULT, WELLS & CO.'S GROCERY,

OWINGSVILLE, KY., and you will never leave without getting what you want at prices entirely satisfactory to you.

How will these do for a starter? First Grade Flour, $2.60 per 100 lbs. Second Grade Flour, $2.40 " " " Third Grade Flour, $2.10 " " " Seventeen pounds Granulated Sugar, $1. Roasted Coffee, 1 lb. packages, 10c. Jelly Glasses, per dozen, 30c.

"DE PABSON" WAS OR.—Mr. Johnson—"Jas" as I wuz comin' out of Marse Jones' gate wif da fowls aw usef pabson. Wife (aghast)—W-wot did he say? Mr. Johnson—He said he wuz comin' ober to tek dinner wif us to-morrow.—Truth.

DEDUCTION CONFIRMED.—Miss Chatter—I knew you would be here today to see sister. Mr. Cuddler (interrog.)—Intuition? Miss Chatter—No; observation. You always appear on the same day that Ethel refuses onions at dinner.—Tit-Bits.

HIS HARD JOB.—"What are the duties of a regimental chaplain?" "To avoid swearing at the rationists, and thus set a good example for the other fellows."—Philadelphia North American.

PROMOTING PEACE.—"I have here," said the caller, "an poem advocating peace." "I suppose," asked the editor, "that you honestly and sincerely desire peace?" "Yes, sir." "Then burn the poem."—Stray Stories.

COULDN'T DO WITHOUT IT.—Mrs. Mulligan—"An' w'at did Mr. O'ner say to you this morning?" Mrs. Muleahy—"Can't you and your husband live together without fighting?" Mrs. Mulligan—"An' w'at did yer say?" Mrs. Muleahy—"No, Yer 'Anner, not happily."—Tit-Bits.